Sonata in G major

Giovanni Battista Sammartini
(1698-1775)

Allegro

The musical score consists of four systems of three staves each, representing a three-part setting (likely Organum or a similar polyphonic form). The staves are arranged vertically, with the top staff in bass clef, the middle in treble clef, and the bottom in bass clef.

- System 1: Starts with a forte dynamic (f) in 3/4 time. The bass staff has eighth-note patterns, the middle staff has sixteenth-note patterns, and the top staff has eighth-note patterns.
- System 2: Continues the rhythmic patterns established in System 1.
- System 3: Shows a transition with dynamics changing from piano (p) to forte (f). The bass staff features eighth-note chords.
- System 4: Concludes the section with eighth-note patterns in all three staves.

Measure numbers 1, 7, 12, and 17 are indicated above the staves at the beginning of their respective systems.
